The ancient Mayans believed that honey possessed mystical properties and was a divine gift of the gods. Just Made sources its raw, organic honey from women-owned cooperatives in Southern Mexico, where the bees roam freely. In the heart of this biosphere is the ancient city of Chichen-Itza where beekeeping was vital to the diet and ecosystem of the Mayan culture.

Your purchase of Just Made Lemonade helps to sustain the Mayan beekeeping culture for generations to come.

*Honey should never be given to infants less than 1 year of age

Every time you purchase a bottle of Just Made, we donate 5¢ to support teachers in our beekeeping communities.
